FOR KENTUCKY—Generally fair
Tuesday.

The election of a judicial ticket in Tennessee will come off to day and it is conceded that the result will be a test of Patterson's strength in the election this fall.

Chairman N. G. Robertson, of the regular Democratic State Campaign Committee, and Chairman W. O.
Vertrees, of the Independent State Democratic Committee, each gave out forecasts on the result. Chairman Robertson claims that the regular Democratic judicial ticket will win by between 15,000 and 20,000, while Chairman Vertrees says the Independent ticket will sweep the State by 40,000 votes.

The lynching season opened up with a busy start on the first day of August, Alabama, Georgia and Florida each reporting a lynching. All of the victims were negroes who were executed for attacks on white women and girls. This does not include the wholesale slaughter of 15 or 20 negroes, near Palestine, Texas, July 31. A race riot was started and the negroes were hunted down and slain, many of them merely because their skins were black.

Since the State troops have been guarding Milton Oliver, following the attempt to assassinate him, two other supposed witnesses against the night riders have been killed, one in Caldwell and one in Lyon county.
One of the men held for the last killing is a witness for the men indicted here. The time is at hand when Gov. Wilson should take most energetic steps to stop the unbridled reign of assassination in the counties where the night rider sentiment still controls and terrorizes.

John G. Carlisle's one great mistake was in following Grover Cleveland out of the Democratic party in 1896. He had been a consistent advocate of bimetalism, had made speeches for silver all over Kentucky but when the crisis came he allowed his views to be subordinated to those of the President, a stronger man in will but not in intellect. He never was forgiven by the party he helped to defeat.

Hon. Wm. J. Bryan owns a farm at Mission, Texas, and it is said he is preparing to move to that place this fall, smarting under the lack of influence shown in the recent Nebraska State convention. Mr. Bryan should remember that many a prophet has been without honor in his own home. The late John G. Carlisle was once defeated for delegate from Kenton county to a State convention.

President Taft has approved without comment an opinion by Attorney General Wickersham to the effect that there is no provision of law by which the statue of Gen. Robt. E.
Lee, in Confederate uniform, can be removed from Statuary Hall in the Capitol at Washington.

The supreme Lodge Knights of Pythias is in session at Milwaukee this week. Public welcoming ceremonies were held Tuesday, Mayor Seidel delivering an address. Col.
Jouett Henry, of this city, is one of the Kentucky representatives prominent in the proceedings.

Mayor W. A. Magee, of Pittsburg, has accepted an invitation to ride with Curtiss in his aeroplane to-day.

Gov. Mann, of Virginia, has appointed former Gov. Claude A. Swanson, to succeed the late John W.
Daniel to the United States Senate.
The appointment is for the unexpired term, which will end on March 3 next.

Simon Keifer killed his sister-in-law in New Orleans, mistaking her for a burglar. The girl was walking in her sleep and trying to open a door.

Several white men are in jail at Palestine, Texas, charged with the ruthless slaughter of 15 or 20 negroes, many of them defenceless, in the recent race riot at Slocum.

Points About
People

COOK—Dr. Frederick A. Cook, the discredited polar explorer, according to his close friend, Captain James Osborn, is within a stone's throw of New York. Captain Osborn also announced that Dr. Cook expects his records from Etah almost any day, and as soon as they arrive he will come out of hiding and lay his claims before the American public once more, defying Commander Peary, and charging that the latter did not reach the North pole.

CARLISLE—Capt. S. M. Gaines, of Kentucky, a Treasury Department employe, who was Mr. Carlisle's private secretary, said: "Mr.
Carlisle was my best friend and one of Kentucky's greatest men. He had a marvelous faculty of grasping the main point of a question and mastering its intricacies in a wonderfully short time. He excelled as a lawyer, statesman, orator and parliamentarian. I knew him forty years. He was on the high road to the Presidency at one time, but was always a poor politician, and chose to follow the dictates of his conscience rather than the popular course."

COBB—"Tyrus Cobb is the one mauling batsman of them all," says Billy Sullivan, the White Sox catcher, "and he is one of few left-handed batsman who can sting the port-side pitchers just as hard as the right-handed hurlers. You never know what's coming off when Cobb is at the plate. Something is going to happen, and about the best thing you can do is to hope that Cobb's hit won't be longer than two bases. In all the world of baseball there seems to be only one man who has Cobb under full control, and that man is Dr. G. Harris White, the White Sox pitcher. Whys and wherefors cannot be explained. Nobody knows how or why it is, but Dr.
White has the high sign on Tyrus If Doc White could be farmed out, just sent around the circuit and only used to pitch against Detroit, I doubt if Cobb would bat 133.

CARNEY—Capt. Jno. P. Carney, the Chief of Louisville detectives, has to his credit the best piece of work done in years, in hunting down and capturing Wendling, the child slayer. Barney is a real sleuth. The apprehension of Wendling, following one of the longest cross-country chases in police annals, added another laurel to his fame as one of the most fearless and efficient detectives in the country. It was his biggest catch and has gained for him a world-wide reputation.

POWELL—Rev. E. L. Powell, who is spending the summer abroad, is writing a series of interesting letters for the Louisville Times. He is now touring Scotland, and will make some of his excursions afoot. Clem Huggins and Joe Hagan, of Louisville, went over with him on the Caledonia.

LONG—Mr. E. B. Long, President of the City Bank & Trust Co., who has been slowly recovering from a stroke of paralysis for many weeks, was able to take his first ride Monday afternoon. Councilman Higgins called for him in his automobile and as he rode through the streets the popular banker was greeted by many words of cheer and smiles of welcome.

WATKINS—Rush C. Watkins, a member of the Board of Public Safety in Louisville, came down to his farm at Pembroke a few days ago in his automobile and is spending his vacation there with his family. He was in town Monday mixing with his friends, of whom he has many. Mr. Watkins is an enthusiastic supporter of Mayor W. O.
Hend, for Governor, and is confident he will be the next Democratic nominee.

WARFIELD—Mr. J. W. Warfield has gone to Maine to look into a proposition from a leading shoe house to travel in Arkansas and Texas. Mr. Warfield is an experienced shoe man and understands the trade in the Southern State.
The firm will do well to secure his service.

BRUTAL MURDER
AT MANNINGTON

Negro Man Slays His Mistress In Jealous
Rage.

HE IS LODGED IN JAIL.

Arrest Made by Marshal R.
E. Long, of Crofton.

Dan Webb shot and killed Laura Brackett, at Mannington, Monday night. The parties were negroes and had been living together.
Jealousy was the cause. Webb met the woman at a crossing in Mannington and pulling a pistol shot the woman through the breast, killing her instantly. It is understood that Webb had learned that the woman was preparing to leave him.

Webb was arrested as he was passing through Crofton yesterday afternoon by Marshal R. E. Long, who brought him to jail. The examining trial has not been set.

Webb claims to have been in the asylum at one time.

Hopper-Reeder.
Miss Willie Reeder, a daughter of Mrs. Sallie G. Reeder, was married Saturday afternoon to Mr. J. R.
Hopper. Rev. E. H. Bull performed the ceremony, which was at the home of the bride's mother near the city.

Jesse James To-night.
Swain Show Co.

It is with pleasure that we can truthfully report the advent of an amusement attraction that not only makes good every promise made in advance, but adds by way of good measure, several distinctive features that place it far beyond the shows that visit interior towns, and give it a class of its own.

The W. I. Swain Co. is, in fact, a revelation to lovers of good, clean amusement. The entire outfit, from the Pullman cars to the smallest detail in connection with the organization, is first class in every respect.

The uniformed all soloist musician band that furnishes a free concert in front of the tent each night from 7:15 to 7:45, is a very enjoyable feature. The orchestra that furnishes the incidental music to the productions and overtures between the acts, is enjoyed very much and adds a distinctive star feature to the Swain shows.

The repertoire of plays is diversified in such a manner that the tastes of all are catered to.

Last night a new western play, "The Arizona Cowboy," was presented. It is a western show, carrying with it a very interesting story, and a splendid comedy character keeps the audience in continued smiles and hearty laughter, and was thoroughly enjoyed last night by an audience that completely filled the big rain proof tent, regardless of the fact that its capacity is estimated at over two thousand people.

Tonight the sensational western comedy drama "Jesse James" will be presented. The play is a pretty natural story, full of sensational scenes, interspersed with good acceptable comedy. It appeals directly to the honest sentiments of each individual and really teaches a great moral lesson.

It is truly said that the simplest emotions are the greatest because they are the truest.

Lige and Liza, two negro servants of the James family, follow "Marse Jesse" through the entire action of the play and furnish the best kind of comedy.

Mr. Swain announces that this will be the last and only chance the public will have to enjoy the production of "Jesse James" for two or three seasons, as he has been using the play for eight consecutive years and it is going to be shelved for a new repertoire of plays next season.

"St. Elmo" will be presented Friday night. "The Younger Brothers," a new show by the Swain company, Saturday night.

Madisonville Lady Leaves a Diamond Exposed to Theft.

A diamond ring, left beside a wash basin in the L. & N. railroad station, at Evansville, Ind., by Miss Eleanor D. Gordon, of Madisonville, Ky., was taken, the matron in the room says, a minute after Miss Gordon left the room, by a well dressed woman.

The police are working on the case.

Miss Gordon has written to L. & N., officials that she will not prosecute the woman that took the ring, if it is returned, and that she will pay a reward.

BEES COST $1,000

Historic Church Edifice Damaged During the Process.

Tarrytown, N. Y., Aug. 1.—The First Reformed church here, a historic edifice which has figured considerably in American literature and in Revolutionary annals, will require $1,000 worth of repairs as the result of a successful attempt last week to drive out a colony of bees which had made their home in the steeple.

Two painters were at work in the church found the bees' nest. Their blow lamp was brought out and its flames turned on the nest. The church was set on fire, but after the fire department had worked hard for half an hour, the flames were extinguished. The damage was estimated at a thousand dollars. The painters accomplished their object in getting rid of the bees, but at a cost of about $5 a bee.
